FOREWORD

To Ancient Egyptians
The sun was light and life,
Creator of all earth
And of itself.
Its rays suggested
A material idol-
The obelisk.

Made of the strongest red granite,
It symbolized the strongest
Of all gods;
Red granite to symbolize
Sunrise and sunset-
Birth and death.
Each obelisk related
The story
Of a pharaoh's reign.

We will write
Our story
And leave . . .
Others will write it
After us
And leave . . .

But the OBELISK
Will remain.

DEDICATION

Reviewing the original blueprints for M.H.S. our principal considers a job well done.

During one of his few free moments, Mr. Nicol is always willing to help the students of M.H.S.

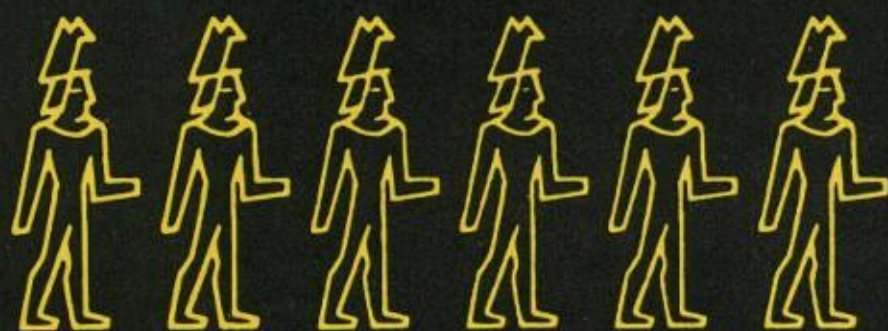

We recognize Mr. Nicol as our principal, but few of us realize that he means much more to M.H.S. than his title suggests. His work began when our school existed only in the abstract world of man's thinking and needed to be brought forth into reality. The creative minds of architects were employed. Mr. Nicol worked alongside them, consulting each plan until M.H.S. was established as the building we know today. Mr. Watts, and the Board of Education, builders, contractors, carpenters, and engineers — all these men were his co-workers, and his only co-workers, until other staff positions were assigned.

From the beginning, Mr. Nicol has carried the spirit that is now reflected in every one of us. This spirit was just as important and needed then as it is now when Mr. Nicol leads us in "Give me an 'M'!" To Mr. Nicol and all the work and spirit that he has injected into our school, this 1963 Obelisk is dedicated.

Handwritten notes in the left margin:
 The school day begins with his familiar voice reading the morning announcements.
 Give me an 'M'!
 Mr. Nicol and all the work and spirit that he has injected into our school, this 1963 Obelisk is dedicated.

Upon the shoulders of the faculty and administration rests the responsibility of preparing us as future adult citizens, able and willing to face the problems of the modern world with keen and observant minds. They sacrifice much of their own time in concentrated efforts to succeed in this venture. Because this task is not an easy one, these individuals deserve the special recognition we have given them here.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The members of the Board of Education concern themselves with the problems encountered by both the Mundelein and Libertyville school systems. They are faced with making decisions that will aid every student involved and make these schools better places for educational advancement.

Dr. Lawrence Day, President
Mrs. Jean Weber, Secretary
Mr. Curtis Meland

Since we do not see the members of the board everyday, we cannot fully appreciate the work that is being done for us. However, much credit must be given to them for the efficient operation of M.H.S.

To these four men, must be attributed a great amount of the credit for the successful functioning of M.H.S. as an educational institution. Daily they face problems outside the classrooms concerning the welfare of the student. Among these are selecting new teachers, planning the curriculum, purchasing necessary educational materials, and handling student discipline. Advised by the school board, they develop new plans for handling our expanding school enrollment and continuing our established school policies.

Divided into four separate classes, the students form the heart of M.H.S. Each of us has the responsibility of establishing and upholding a respected and distinguished name for our school. Each class works individually to sponsor dances and to compete against each other in the activities of the year. Yet, when they are needed, each rallies forth in strong non-partisan support of our school.

HONORS

The students on these two pages have worked hard throughout their years at high school and, at various times during the year, this work has been acknowledged. The OBELISK tries to preserve the awards on these two pages.

In February the juniors and seniors showing leadership, character, scholarship, and service were inducted into the Mundelein chapter of the National Honor Society, one of the highest honors that can be placed upon high school students.

The three National Merit finalists from M.H.S. were also announced at this time. They were named on the basis of their outstanding scores on the NMSQT taken during their junior year. M.H.S. was also very fortunate in claiming eight National Merit Letters of Commendation as compared to the three last year.

In the spring the valedictorian and salutatorian were chosen to speak in behalf of their class at graduation. After four years of intense study, these two students were first and second academically in the 1963 graduating class.

Along with this announcement came another proclaiming the members of the Quill and Scroll Society. The members of this honor organization were cited for their outstanding work in the field of journalism.

All of these honors were bestowed upon students to give the recognition which otherwise might be overlooked. The appointments imply the faith of the faculty, administration, and many others in the future success of these individuals.

Second place honors for their float in the Mustang Day parade was only one of the achievements of our well-spirited and hard-working senior class. During the course of the year's events, they produced a festive dance at Christmas time and an equally successful Class Day in the Spring. Now, after contributing to the first two successful years of M.H.S., they will continue to establish their own lives in college and various other future careers.

This year the Class of 1964 proved that they possessed the spirit and enthusiasm that is becoming typical of M. H. S. The members of this class also began to consider possible academic careers in college. They headed the social calender of M.H.S. with the first of the class dances in the fall and the Prom in the spring.

The Class of 1965 will be the first class to complete four years of academic life at M.H.S. The accomplishments of the class this year were their float which received two awards and their class dance in March. This class is challenged with the continuation of the spirit and reputation the previous upperclassmen have established.

Indications thus far this year show that the Class of 1966 will be capable of leading M.H.S. after the first classes have graduated. They have excellent turn outs for class duties such as student council and class officers. The members of this class are the leaders of M.H.S. tomorrow. If they continue to work in the same way they are now, they will fulfill this obligation satisfactorily.

TRADITIONS

As members of the first few graduating classes of M.H.S., we are responsible for establishing the traditions of this school. These traditions must represent and build the character of our school. Even as graduates, we will be able to remember the crowning of the queen at the Mustang Day festivities and the enchantment of the Prom. The faces change from year to year but the same general enthusiasm for these activities will always remain.

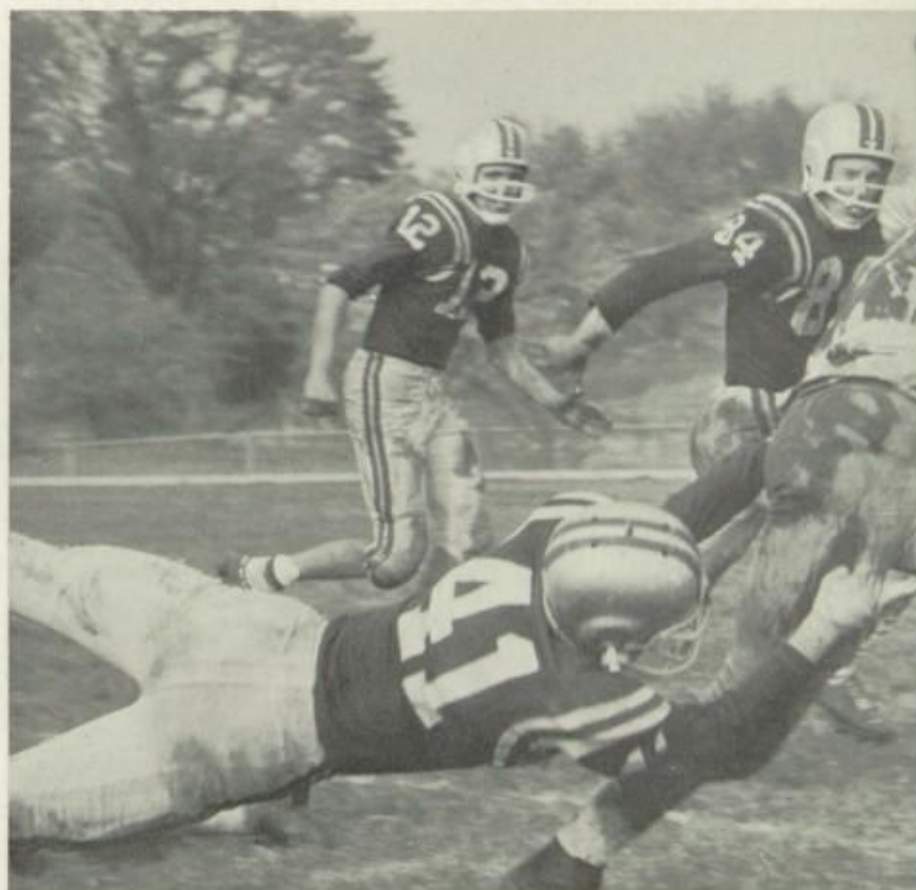

I earnest Tim,
if you were a grave disappointment to me at Connell's party
I always thought you were passionate

HOMECOMING

SGO President Bob Garcia and Queen Phyllis Frost

A Lake Park back is stopped inches short of the game tying touchdown as the buzzer signals the end of the game.

Queen Phyllis and her court reigned over a totally victorious Mustang Day. The festivities began with a parade through town that led a well-spirited crowd of fans to watch Lake Park's challenge on our field. Predicted to lose by two touchdowns, our Mustangs rallied forth in the second half to a 7-0 victory. The overwhelming enthusiasm carried on through the night at the dance sponsored by the SGO, and continued the following week in school.

ROAD SHOW '63

The house was sold out for both performances of the 1963 "Road Show." It was claimed by many to be the best musical production in this area for quite a few years. The story, a satire on the Miss America pageant, was written by students under the direction of Mr. Bohnsack, Miss Mitchell, and Mr. Bieber. Hidden talent appeared as students sang, danced, and gave comedy skits. Many students worked on properties, make-up, and scenery. There was something for everyone in this successful production.

"No, sir. You go right ahead and CRY-Y-Y!" Gladys tells Jack.

The five Miss America finalists anxiously await the judges decision.

Darcey Smith, Karen Black, Don Hamm, and Bill Hamm relax back stage while waiting for their acts.

YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU

Theater audiences attending the first production of the Mundelein Drama Club this year became acquainted with a very unusual family. The Hart-Kaufman comedy depicts the daily lives of the members of Grandpa Vanderhof's family. Alice manages to bring out the "best" in everyone when she brings her boss's son home to meet his future in-laws. Penny continually plays parlor games while Mr. DePinna proudly parades through the house in his old Roman costume. Essie, obeying the advice of her dancing instructor, practices her dancing to the musical accompaniment of her husband Ed. Although all this seems to upset the rich Mr. and Mrs. Kirby, Grandpa remains calm throughout the entire day and proves to Mr. Kirby that "You Can't Take It With You."

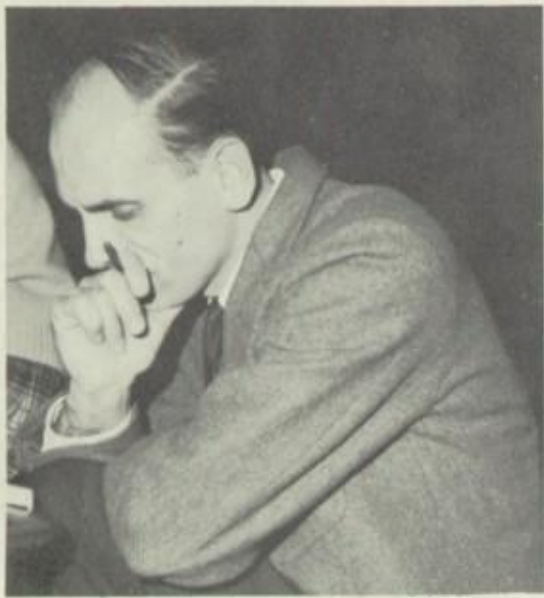

"Please, Mr. De Pinna, hold still."

"The next word," says Penny, "... sex."

Alice explodes at her father, whose wisdom she confuses for laziness.

After more than one year of confinement, Anne experiences her first kiss.

"THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK"

When Anne Frank was just thirteen years old, she and her family and friends went into hiding in an attic. "The Diary of Anne Frank", written from notes left in Anne's diary, is the story of Anne's two years of hiding. Director Mr. Bohnsack, student director Risa Geary, and the Drama Club presented this play on the second and third of May. It's impact was felt by the audience in many ways - some viewers cried, others even laughed, many just contemplated the meaning of the true story.

Couples could take a romantic stroll through the courtyard.

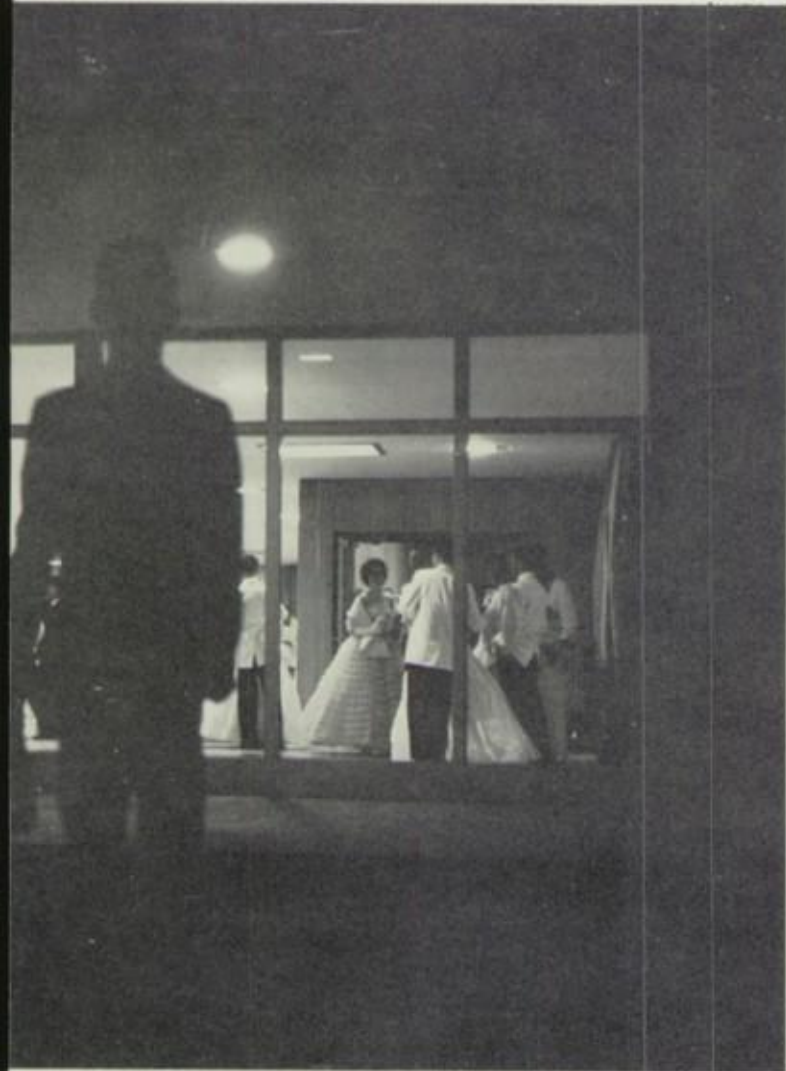

Much of the evening's time was passed with friends in the manor house dining room.

PROM

Gary Van Den Berge and Molly McNamara serve as 2 of the charming 12 hosts and hostesses.

Seniors girls became queens at their last dance.

Overnight the Class of 1963 transformed M.H.S. into a Southern mansion. The cafeteria became a ball room with "Moon River" drifting past its windows. The lobby became a reception hall with a winding staircase complimenting the picture. Top-ranked sophomores, in the costume of Southern slaves, added their part to the evening as they served the guests. The charm of the "Old South" lasted throughout the evening and on into the early morning hours as private celebrations continued.

EXCHANGE STUDENT

A prettier student couldn't have been chosen.

Yami Pauses for a moment at a friend's locker.

The American Field Service has been sponsoring exchange student programs in this area for many years, and this year M.H.S. participated in the A.F.S. program.

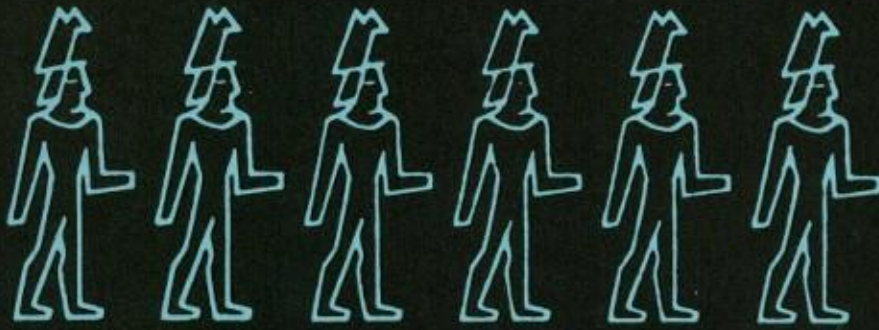

Yamileth Gutierrez from Costa Rica spent this school year in the home of Barb Marx, her American "sister". At M.H.S. Yami became popular instantly and was chosen as a finalist for homecoming queen. She quickly adopted herself to our school life, learned our dating customs, and "loved" our food. She also told us about life in Costa Rica.

As a member of Pep Club, Yami supported her team.

Jenny Brown and Yami use a spare moment to review an assignment.

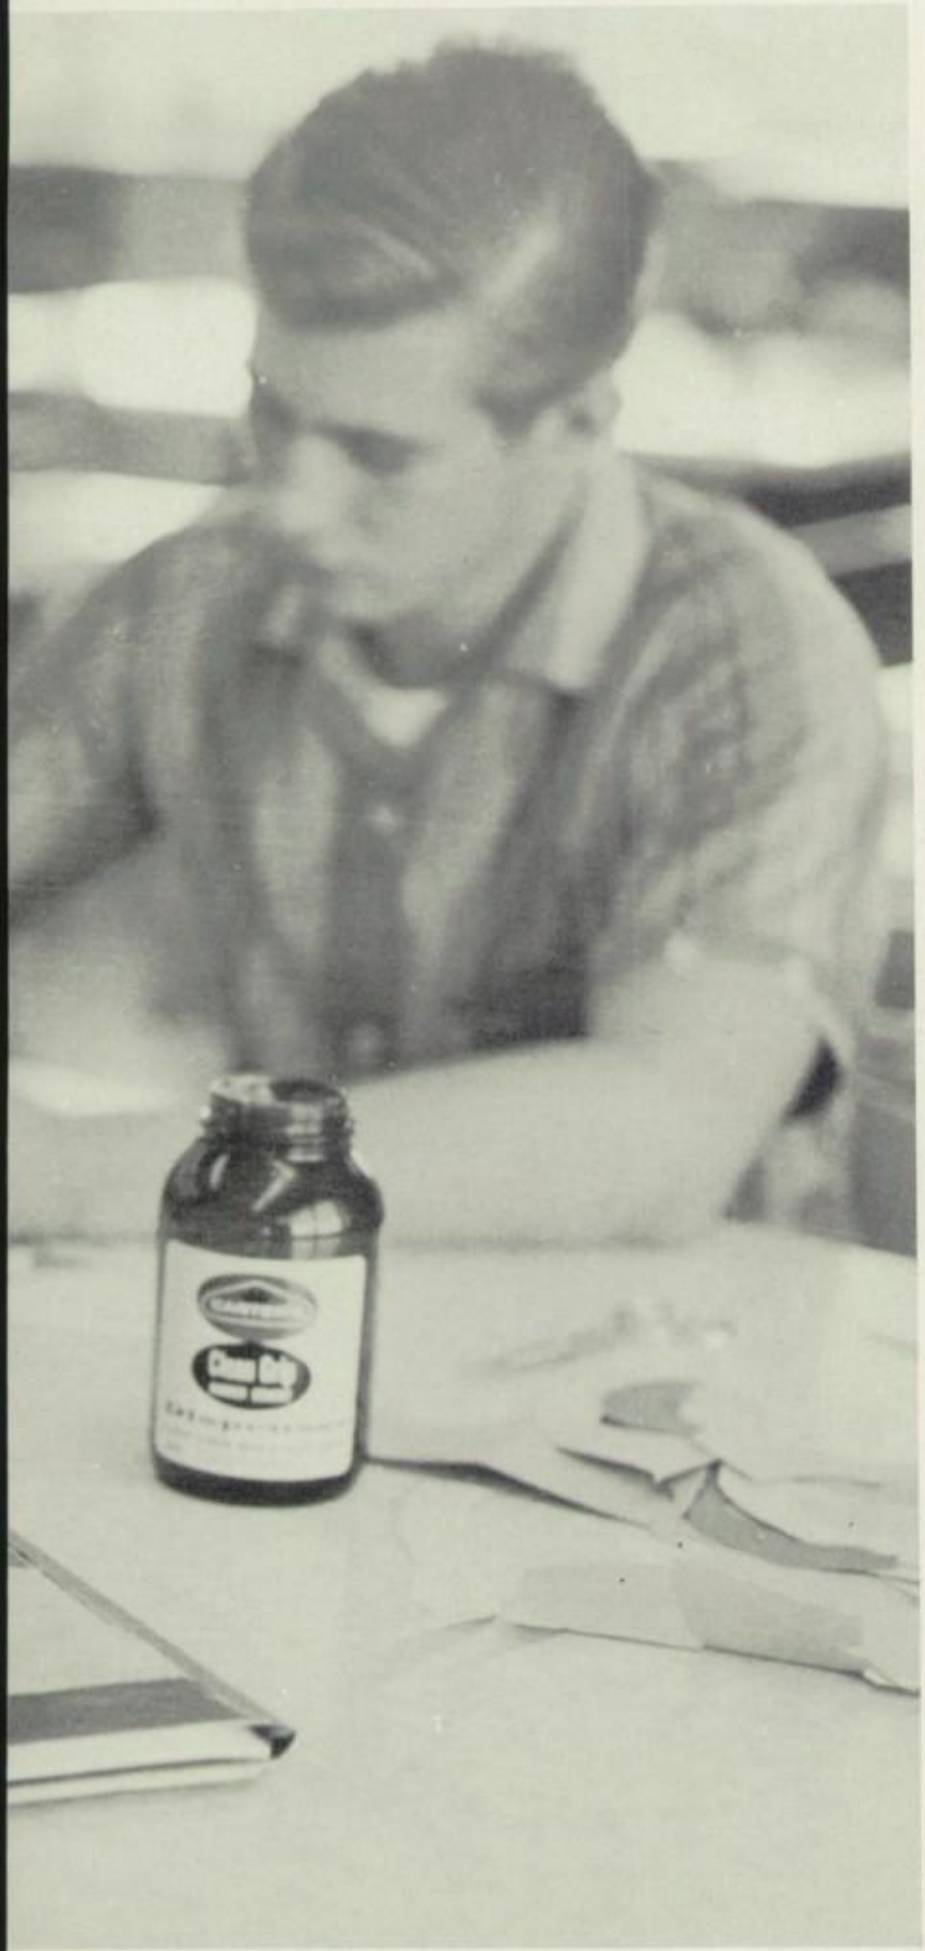

In the band, chorus, and A Cappella Choir, the students of MHS are able to develop their feelings and emotions in a way befitting future citizens. A clear tone, a deep pitch, a resonant song: all are elements of a form of communication which is a little more involved than our common speech. In addition to expressing thoughts clearly, this form of communication desires emotional deliverance as well.

The OBELISK and the MUSTANG are in themselves a means of expression. Layouts are drawn, copy is written, interviews are made, and opinions are voiced. All these activities are the art of creativeness which bring out character and emotion, the elements of a good publication.

Through these areas of education and school activity, the students at Mundelein High School are able to express their feelings and develop their thoughts. Such a vital facet of learning as this cannot be overlooked. This is why we have dedicated a section of our yearbook to the creative communications.

"Ever forward, Onward always" as viewed by the marching band.

Under the direction of Mr. Bieber, students with musical talents displayed their ability before many interested audiences. Members of the marching band provided the half-time entertainment for spectators at football games. Pep band, later organized into a dance band, entertained Mustang fans at basketball games and after-game dances. Our concert band stepped into the spotlight of Mundelein's music department at the concerts held during the year.

Editor Mary Jane Kirk and Ass't editor Peggy Parker choose pictures and cover design for the '63 OBELISK.

Another year has passed and has left its marks on M.H.S. Our school has grown in the eyes of our community and the surrounding area. As members of the OBELISK staff, we have tried to record this growth as accurately and as completely as we could on these pages.

At times we became disheartened when the problems seemed too large to cope with; but, with a push of encouragement from our advisor Mr. Ortman, we were able to finish our production. We used an approach that was different from that used by last year's staff. Our pictures were more informal, while our copy was more comprehensive. The color used, we feel, added a more professional effect to the book.

We feel that this book represents a part of each one of us. We are now proud to present this OBELISK to you as a permanent record of your achievements this year at M.H.S.

OBELISK

Jeanette and Marilyn Johnson place page numbers after students' names in the index.

The Canteen, when it was open, was the OBELISK'S main source of revenue.

Ruth Malone writes copy as Molly McNamara draws the corresponding layouts.

Carol Lane, Editor, and Barbara Marx, Assistant Editor, spend most of their spare time creating the MUSTANG.

September 1962 marked the second year for our school and for its newspaper, the MUSTANG. Since its first issue in 1961, the MUSTANG has changed face considerably. Our staff likes to think of it as improvement for we have spent many hours writing, correcting, typing and pasting in order to present you with 15 bi-weekly issues. Our main objective was to present the news to you, our readers. We have also employed features, puzzles, polls, jokes, and editorials to make each issue contain something to interest everyone.

As we look back over the year, we can sigh with relief. We've put away the pencils, paper, and glue for the last time—the 62-63 MUSTANG "has been put to bed."

ORGANIZATIONS

The student leaders of M.H.S. are those who participate in the varied organizations provided at our school. These activities play a vital role in the evolution of our academic lives. Without these organizations our school life would not be complete because they provide an outlet for our varied talents and help to form the spirit of M.H.S.

CABINET

Among the various other functions of SGO this year, the council was active in carrying on drives, sponsoring two dances, and forming the student court.

The toy drive and the clothing drive were so successful because of the unequalled enthusiasm of the students in ravaging the town for the unuseables. In doing so, they displayed the deep school spirit ever present at M.H.S.

The Mustang Day dance and the Gym Jam were the main sources of the council revenue for this year. Due to the large turnout at these affairs, the council has been able to donate to various fund drives during the year.

The addition of a student court to the functioning bodies of the organization should increase the activity of the SGO in school affairs. As a form of discipline based on our own local and national governments, it gives the SGO the authority it needs to operate efficiently.

Those people serving as members of the Ushers Club had a large responsibility when they worked at school activities this year. Under the direction of Mr. Seeds, their sponsor, they kept the spectators off the gym floor during our basketball games and seated the spectators during the regional tournament held at M.H.S. In addition to this, they ushered at the "Road Show" and at the choral and band concerts presented at our school. This group can be truly commended for a job well done.

The receptionists were on the job everyday to help the office and guidance staffs with their many time-consuming tasks. They took messages to students, called them in for interviews, took attendance cards, and were generally on hand to offer any aid they could. Through doing these different tasks, they were able to gain valuable office experience.

The Art Club exhibited their material several times during the year in the halls of M.H.S. The members of this club band together because of a common interest in the future cultural developments of our community and country.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

The members of the Library Club checked books in and out, saw to it that books were returned to their proper shelves, and signed students in from study halls. Last fall they conducted a book fair which offered students a selection of 2100 books. They continued to run a paperback bookstore during the year.

DRAMA CLUB

The curtain rises and another stage production begins at M.H.S. This represents the concerted efforts of each member of the Drama Club. For weeks before, they have been building and painting scenery, making costumes, collecting props, and attending rehearsals nightly.

During the year the Drama Club members are given the opportunity to participate as an audience rather than as performers when they attend legitimate theater productions in Chicago. This experience enables them to appreciate more fully the dramatic arts.

Pep Club this year was a more active organization than ever before. They encouraged more team support by placing posters throughout the halls before the various athletic events. At each game they had their private cheering section which tried to compete with, and lead, the remainder of the school supporters.

ATHLETICS

Everyone of us, whether we participate physically or offer support to the players, has the task of establishing a name of honor for M.H.S. These athletic events offer a means by which our school can become known for its physical strength, moral support, and sportsmanship. During the past two years the students have established a name for M.H.S. of which we can be proud. Our duty now is to uphold that name.

Some Mustangs rest as their fellow team-mates continue the game.

Until January 4th the Mustangs were undefeated in conference play; on that Friday they were defeated by Lake Park. But hopes were high as on January 18th the Mustangs defeated North Chicago and established a firm hold on second place. But again they were defeated by Lake Park and finished the season sharing second place with North Chicago.

Our sophomore team took second in the conference having been beaten only by Elmwood Park, North Chicago, and Lake Park in conference play. The frosh team won a second place trophy for Mundelein when they lost to Elmwood Park in the final game of the Tri-County Freshman Tournament.

WRESTLING

Our Mundelein wrestlers concluded their second season with an impressive 15-3-1 dual meet record. Victories over Elmwood Park and Libertyville highlighted the season. A decisive score of 28-13 forced arch-rival Libertyville to recognize Mundelein as their conquerers. The Munstangs won tournament action on three different occasions during the year. In a field of eight they finished second in the Mundelein Holiday Invitational Wrestling Tournament, fifth in the Conference Wrestling Tournament, and third in the District Wrestling Tournament.

Although the '63 teams are pictured here, the OBELISK went to press too early to record their achievements. But we would like, at this time, to note the accomplishments of the 1962 teams. The varsity baseball team became the first of M.H.S. teams to win a regional tournament and go on to sectional play. One of the high points of the baseball season was our triumph over Main West High School, the team picked to win the state crown. We can gratefully acknowledge our coaches as well as our teams for these successful seasons.

ATHLETIC HONORS

The athlete represents his school in the area of competitive sports. He works hard to maintain his position as a worthy representative and much of his spare time is taken up with practices after school. Outstanding athletes at M.H.S. receive awards for their performances.

Carl Boothe as fullback, Tom Brill as center, and Doc Noll as tackle were elected to the all-conference football team for the 1962 season. These boys represent the "BEST" in their particular position in the entire conference.

Tom Vaughn, Dennis Boothe, and Jerry Shanholtzer received awards for their play during the 62-63 basketball season. Tom made the A-string and Dennis and Jerry the B-string of the all conference teams. Besides these honors, these boys received trophies in recognition of their contributions to the team. Because of his scoring ability and terrific defensive action, Tom was named to the Tri-County All Stars. Jerry accumulated the best free throw percentage and Dennis was selected the most valuable player.

Two senior wrestlers also received honors this year. These varsity co-captains were Dave Grandt and Doc Noll. With a record of 27-4, Doc proved to be the most valuable wrestler, while Dave was the most improved, with a score of 20-4.

Don Johnson, a member of this year's track team, is pictured here because of his achievements during the '62 season. At that time, Donny represented Mundelein in the state high-jump competition.

REFLECTIONS

The first day of school:
You came and heard Mr. Nicol talk
About Mundelein High School,
You were received—
And welcomed.

The student receptionists
Answered your questions . . .
And recorded your absences.

You learned to spend your time
Ducking into the library
Because the study halls were so warm —
And noisy.

Soon the football games started.
You yelled . . . ate hot dogs.
. . . And threw paper when we scored.

Mundelein's first Homecoming
 Saw you out watching the parade . . .
 And the Mustangs
 Who were defeating Lake Park.

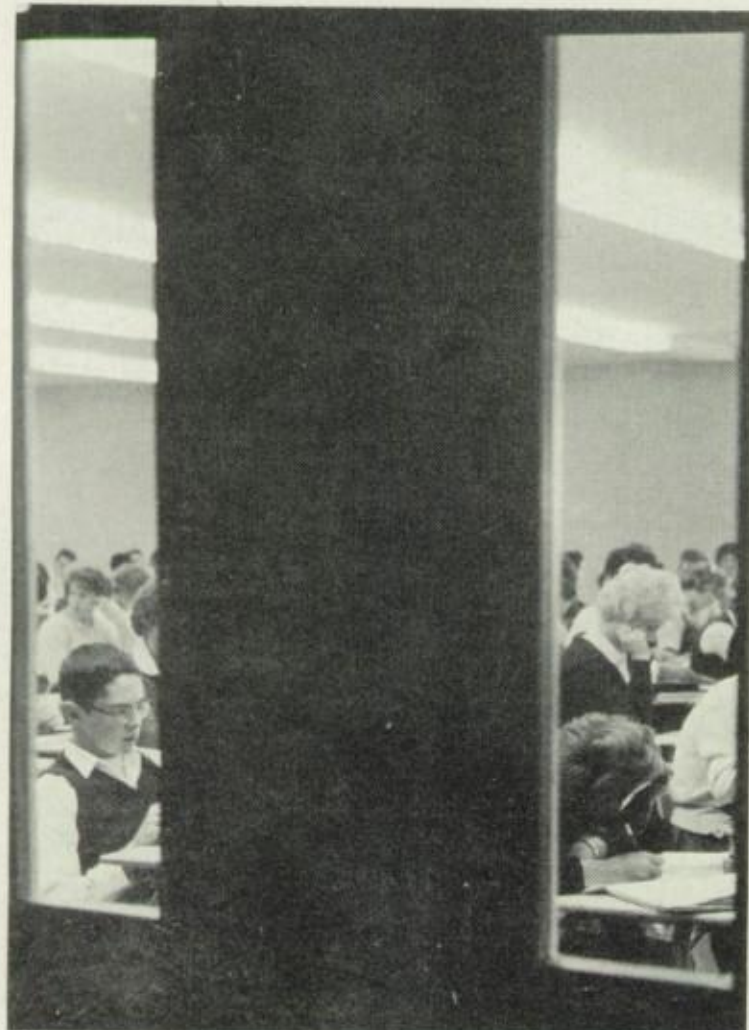

Later that night
 You attended the homecoming dance . . .
 And loved it.

As the football season progressed
 So did the number of students
 With crutches.
 Cause and effect?

You remember also the tragic end
 To our otherwise successful season
 As we were cremated—
 By Ridgewood.

Then it was back
To joking around after school
And waiting for basketball to start.

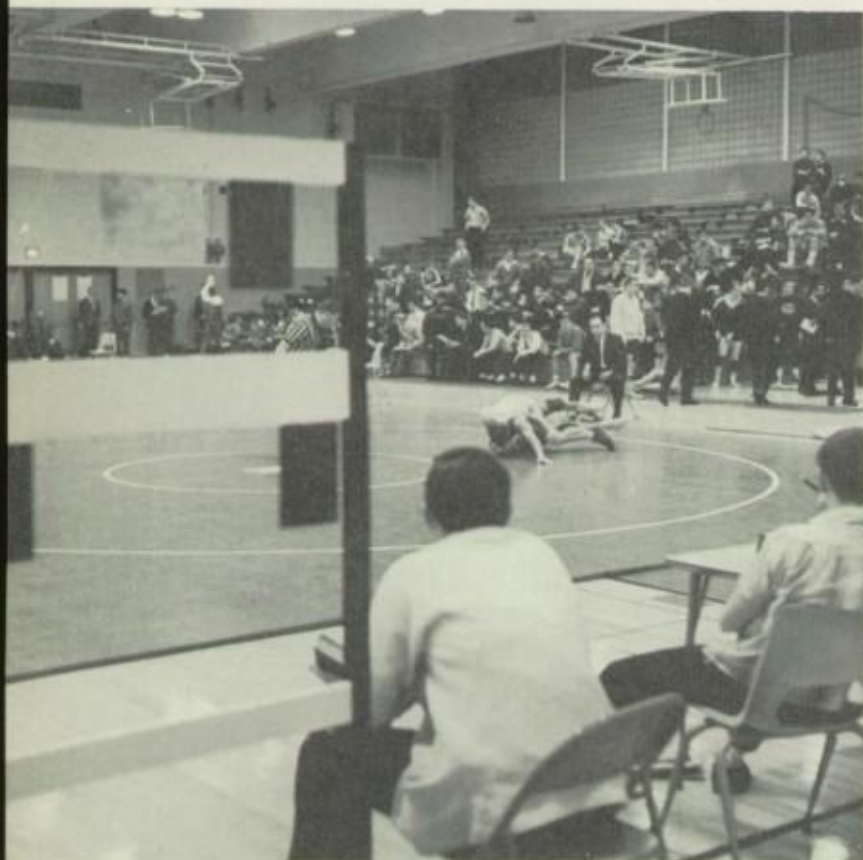

The days cooled off
So you didn't mind the study halls—
And the noise—
Quite as much.

Open house preparations began
And you saw the janitors
Cleaning the school.

Mr. Brown finally came,
Issued licenses . . . and didn't.
You used yours
To go to the junior dance.

Rehearsals for the play began
And you peeked in
While waiting for the bus.
But you weren't satisfied
And came to see it anyway.

134

Winter sports began
So you spent Saturday afternoons
Watching the wrestling matches.

The canteen opened after school . . .
And closed . . .
Because you were so sloppy.

Basketball games filled your Friday and Saturday nights.
You cheered and screamed
And saw us revenge—
Ridgewood.

Or maybe you watched the cheerleaders
And the little boys from Carl Sandburg
Who came
To every game.

Semester exams faced you once again.
You began to realize how little you knew . . .
And how much there was
To know.

You wondered about the Art Club's displays
Which were later replaced
By trophies
Which we gave away.

Hi Hank!
 See you sure are neat aren't you! See ya next year in School - Beat
 ante - Lots of luck
 Love ya
 ROB

As the basketball season ended
 And things settled down,
 You went to see the Road Show.
 Or, maybe you were one of those
 Who viewed it from the stage
 And loved every bit
 Of the limelight.

136

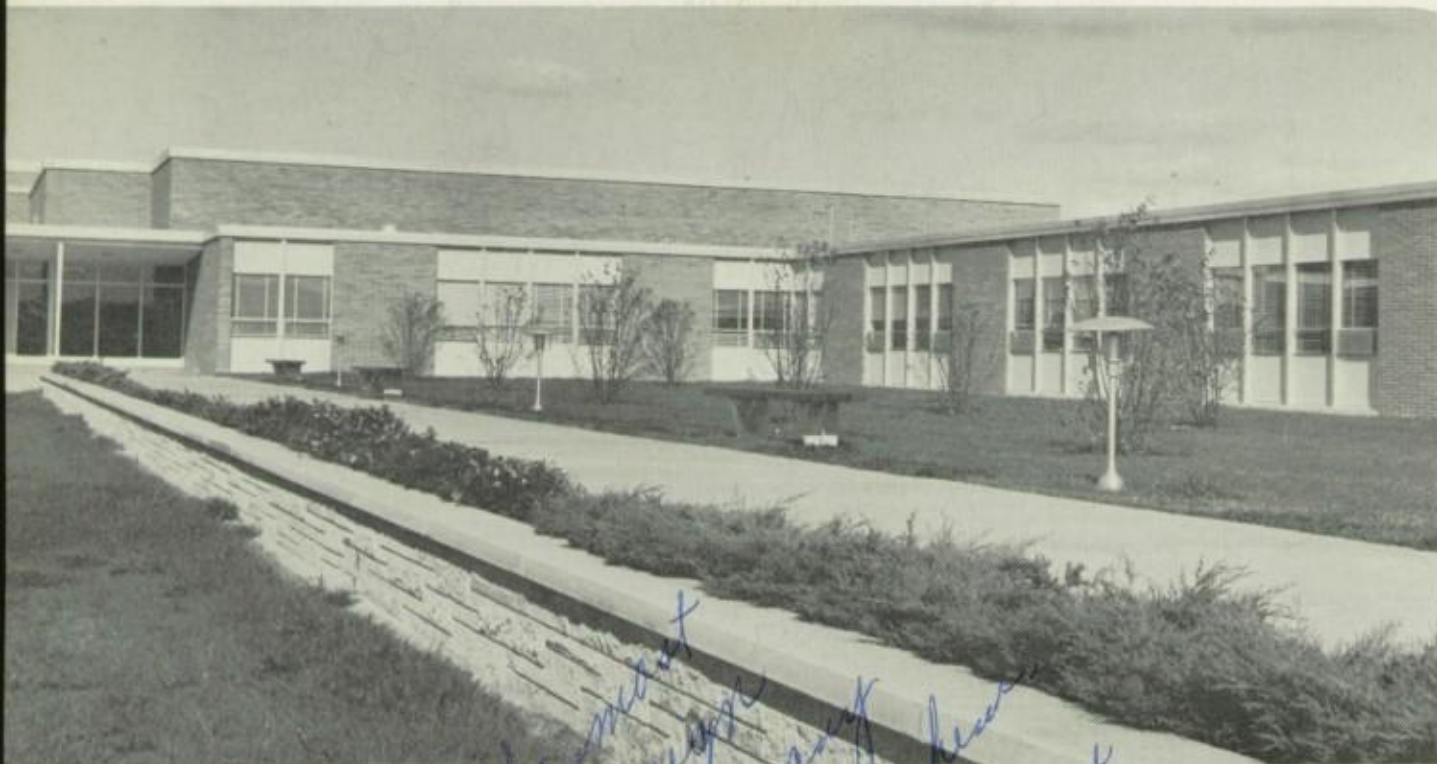

Spring sports began . . .
 You saw the boys practicing.
 Every day: baseball, track, tennis.
 It was always something.

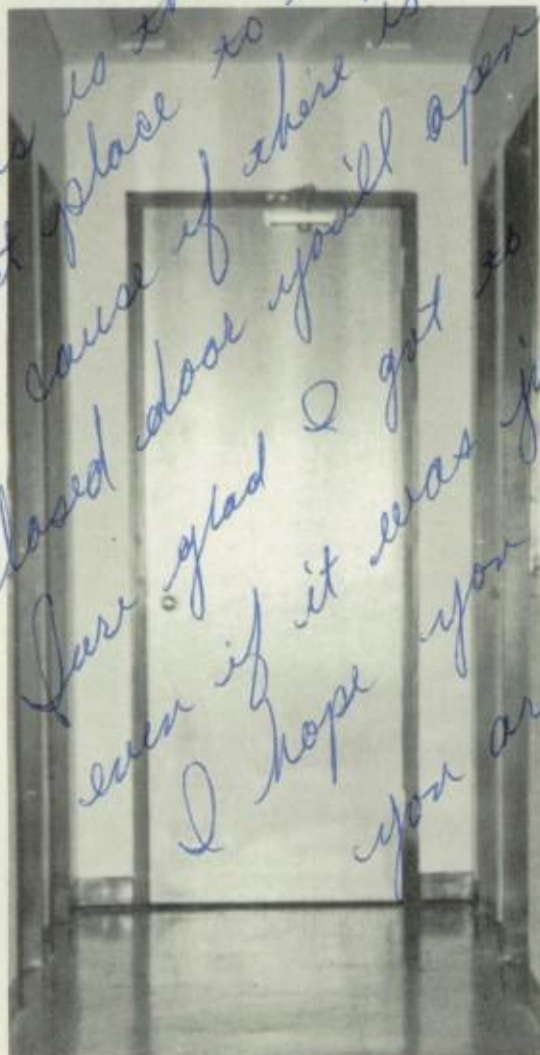

But, determined to end the year
 With a surge,
 You cracked the books once more.
 You saw teachers,
 Studied,
 Reviewed college catalogs,
 And studied some more.

Time, this is the most perfect place so sign this cause if there is any closed door you'll open them
 I'm glad I got to know you even if it was just a short time.
 I hope you stay as neat as you are and have fun!

The courtyard opened again
 And you forgot your studies
 For a while.

You went to the Obelisk Dance,
 Saw the new division pages,
 And wondered . . .
 Why?

As time goes on, new people,
 In all classes of society,
 Will present themselves
 To you.

And you must endure.

You will learn to think creatively
 And communicate these ideas.

You will organize
 And establish the best ideas
 As tradition.

For the rest of your life

You will administer . . .

And be administered to.

At intervals you will close old doors
 Behind you,
 Embark upon new pathways,
 And explore.

These things we see in our school—
 We hope you saw them too,
 In your 1963 Obelisk.

P. E. The world is your oyster!

Tim
 Got back in the future. Keep practicing that wrestling & track.
 Keep my own grade.

 You might even have gotten your diploma
 At last.

Leaving M H S that last day,
 You left a part of yourself
 Forever to remain
 At Mundelein.
 A memory.

But for now,
 You say good-bye to Mundelein High School.
 You Have your 1963 OBELISK,
 Your memories,
 Your life
 To live.
